

Application for Non-Member Participation on AIA Standards Development

Membership on an AIA American National Standard Working Group (ANSWG) is open to directly and materially affected parties, in accordance with TOC-1, Section 2.2. Non-members may apply for membership on an AIA ANSWG, which may include a reasonable participation fee. A waiver of the participation fee may be requested with justification. At this time, there is no participation fee.

Completed applications and/or questions may be sent to nas.standards@aia-aerospace.org or the AIA team member managing the ANSWG of interest.
